

Request not to Share Information Regarding Disability

I have shared information with the University about my impairment / disability / dyslexia which is covered under the definitions of the Equality Act 2010.

I understand that under this legislation I am entitled to request reasonable adjustments in the University and also in my work placement, to ensure that I am able to work to my full potential and not be disadvantaged by my impairment.

I have requested as is my right under the Act, that information relating to my impairment is not shared with anyone else in the University. In doing this I understand that the University will not be able to make specific adjustments in relation to my impairment. This has been explained to me, and I am fully aware of the possible consequences of this request.

I also understand that in exceptional cases where academic staff feels that not sharing information about my impairment may put myself or others at risk, they will discuss this with me and carry out a full assessment of that risk in the context of my placement.

I am also aware that if I change my mind and would like to access reasonable adjustments or protection under the Act, I can contact the Disability Service or my personal academic tutor to discuss this.
