Learning Outcomes
Outcome Number	Description
01	Describe and explain legal institutions, rules, principles, and underlying legal concepts relating to international human rights
02	Apply legal knowledge accurately and analytically to solve legal problems
03	Conduct effective research into primary and secondary legal sources, providing accurate and consistent references
04	Communicate legal knowledge, understanding, and argument accurately and effectively in writing

Learning, Teaching and Assessment Strategy
This module covers human rights and equality law in a variety of contexts and introduces you to the key issues and debates in this area of law. Through lectures and seminars you will explore the law which guarantees human rights across the globe and discuss and debate issues arising from those provisions. Teaching and learning will be delivered on a 'blended' model, by a combination of face to face and online sessions Throughout the semester you will hone your critical thinking and reasoning skills (LOs 1,2) which will then be assessed by coursework at the end of the module. The coursework will test your ability to explain issues and debates in Human Rights and comment on them (LO1) and present a clear and coherent argument which is based on a variety of sources (LOs 2,3,4). There will be an opportunity during the module to answer an example question for formative feedback testing all LOs.

Mode of Assessment
Type	Method	Description	Weighting
