

Module Details
Module Title	Research Methods for Social Workers
Module Code	SOW6003-D
Academic Year	2024/5
Credits	40
School	School of Social Sciences
FHEQ Level	FHEQ Level 6

Contact Hours
Type	Hours
Lectures	30
Tutorials	12
Directed Study	358

Availability
Occurrence	Location / Period
BDA	University of Bradford / Academic Year

Module Aims
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To increase your knowledge about research methods for social workers. 2. To equip you with the knowledge and methodological skills required to plan a Social Work practice-based research project. 3 To develop an awareness of the requirement to account for aspects concerning research ethics. 4. To uphold and promote the integrity and dignity of all those who participate and consent within the research process.

Outline Syllabus
Understanding the relationship between Social Work research, policy and practice; Developing literature searching and reviewing skills; Designing a research project and developing research questions; An introduction to qualitative, quantitative and mixed methods designs with research illustrations; Data collection methods and data analysis techniques; Research ethics; Informed consent and engagement of participants; Research with vulnerable populations; Considering issues of diversity; Guidance for developing research project assignments.

Learning Outcomes
Outcome Number	Description
01	Demonstrate your knowledge about research methods for social work.
02	Demonstrate your ability to critically review literature.
03	Demonstrate your ability to select a project, determine the most suitable methods and consider the ethical issues.
04	Demonstrate your ability to communicate the purpose of the study and what will be involved to participants to ensure informed consent.
05	Demonstrate awareness of epistemological, theoretical and ethical issues underpinning research.
06	Demonstrate awareness of qualitative, quantitative and mixed methods designs and their strengths and limitations.

Learning, Teaching and Assessment Strategy
Lectures, group seminars, presentations from current Social Work and Social Science researchers, a Library searching session, guided and independent reading and lecturer input will support the achievement of all learning outcomes. To support you with your assignment, small group seminars will be offered. The Learning Outcomes for the module will be formally assessed through a 3000 word assignment.

Mode of Assessment
Type	Method	Description	Weighting
Summative	Coursework - Written	Assignment: To design a research project	100%

Reading List
To access the reading list for this module, please visit https://bradford.rl.talis.com/index.html

Please note:

This module descriptor has been published in advance of the academic year to which it applies. Every effort has been made to ensure that the information is accurate at the time of publication, but minor changes may occur given the interval between publishing and commencement of teaching. Upon commencement of the module, students will receive a handbook with further detail about the module and any changes will be discussed and/or communicated at this point.